

OH&S POLICY

UNO Management Services Pty Ltd recognises it has a duty of care to provide its team members with a safe and healthy environment. We are committed to leading the industry in OH&S management of its people and activities. This will be achieved by:

- Measuring our safety statistics, setting targets for ongoing improvement and annually reviewing how we meet these targets with our stakeholders.
- Complying with the requirements of current relevant safety legislation and codes of practice.
- Implementing a development and training program for Team Members to raise awareness of OH&S issues and skills and develop and enlist their support in improving our performance.
- Developing and implementing a Risk Management System as part of UNOIMS.
- Communicating continuous safety improvement initiatives amongst our Team Members, Clients and Suppliers.
- Communicating safety incidents amongst our Team Members, Clients and Suppliers.
- Sourcing and promoting safe work practices that eliminate, reduce, or minimise potential safety impacts.
- Maintaining and storing OH&S documentation and records in accordance with the requirements of current relevant safety legislation and codes of practice.

Managing Director
15 February 2010

Managing Director